

#WeToo & Olympics: Collective Voice Against Discrimination & Sexual Violence in Sport

NGO parallel event @ the 63rd session of the Commission on the Status of Women(CSW63)

~ Towards a violence and discrimination-free society for all! ~

March 12, 2019 @ 6:15pm

The Armenian Convention Center (Vartan Hall)
630 2nd Ave New York, NY 10016
Free. Open to the public.
RSVP: hrnnyinfo@gmail.com

The event aims to

- Raise awareness on gender-based discrimination and sexual violence against girls and women in sport
- Highlight the impact of the #MeToo & #WeToo movement on social changes

Speakers

Ms. Nancy-Hogshead Makar

An Olympic champion swimmer, a civil rights lawyer, and CEO of Champion Women, a non-profit providing legal advocacy for girls and women in sports. Co-author of “Equal Play, Title IX and Social Change.”

Ms. Kazuko Ito

A Tokyo based human rights lawyer. Founder and Secretary-General of Human Rights Now, the first Japan-based international human rights NGO with United Nations special consultative status.

Ms. Jennifer Sey

A seven time member of the US national gymnastics team and the 1986 national champion. Senior vice president and chief marketing officer of Levi Strauss & Co. Author of “Chalked Up,” a New York Times E-Book best seller.

Let's make sure that The 2020 Tokyo Olympics will be held with full respect for human rights!

Human Rights Now

<http://hrn.or.jp/eng/>
@hrn_friends_eng