

*Illustrations by Fukushima children with an IDP portrait artist

From Hiroshima and Nagasaki to the Marshall Islands and Fukushima

80 years of Nuclear Displacement
as a Persistent Human Rights Challenge

30th June 2025

Palais de Nations
Room XXV
/Webinar

2pm – 3pm (CET)
9pm – 10 pm (JST)
12:00am – 1am (MHT)

Opening remarks by

Doreen de Brum: Ambassador of Permanent Mission of the Republic of the Marshall Islands

Speakers

Paula Gaviria Betancur (video) : Current Special Rapporteur on the human rights of Internally Displaced Persons

National Nuclear Commission (Video): Independent statutory body established to lead initiatives for nuclear justice in the Marshall Islands

Raphael Pangalangan: Human Rights Officer of OHCHR

Krishnan Raghavan: Human Rights Officer of OHCHR

Jiro Hamasumi (video): Secretary General of Nihon Hidankyo — 2024 Nobel Peace Prize winning organization

Cecilia Jimenez-Damary (Video): Former Special Rapporteur on the human rights of Internally Displaced Persons

Mitsuko Sonoda: Fukushima evacuee and human rights activist

Moderator

Calvin Queant: Human Rights Now Geneva Europe Director

Webinar
Registration
here

Organized by:

Human Rights Now

Co-Sponsored by:

